

Centerville Public Library Disruption Policy

Centerville Public Library welcomes the use of its facilities for the enjoyment of all. Our services and programs are offered to make the library a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Each person is responsible to behave in a manner that does not violate the rights of others, interfere with library services and operations, or interfere with staff in the performance of their duties. All public areas of the library, including meeting rooms, restrooms, entrances, furnishings, and equipment must be used for their intended purposes and are covered by this policy.

When the behavior of a person constitutes a disruption which interferes with the use of the library by other patrons, or impedes staff from performing their duties, the patron will be given a verbal warning to stop the behavior. If the behavior continues, the patron will be asked to leave the premises. If the patron refuses to leave, the Barnstable Police may be called.
